

Quest Connect Groups

Quest Connect Groups meet each week to discuss the message from Sunday, encourage each other, and grow in faith together.

Stop by the information center or visit our website for a list of groups, contact a host and make the connection this week.

Childcare is available at the church for Wednesday night groups.

Register online by midnight Sunday for childcare service this Wednesday.

1. Which part of this message was most impactful for you and why?
2. In your opinion, why do you think some walk away from faith? Have you ever had a conversation with someone considering leaving the faith? What was that experience like?
3. Read Matthew 14:28-31. What truths about Jesus' character could help you see His question to Peter as an invitation instead of an accusation?
4. Share about how you typically handle doubt. What would it look like to view doubt as a tool to grow your faith?
5. Take some time to talk about beliefs you've either questioned in the past or are currently questioning. How do you identify what's true and what's untrue?
6. Pray for your group. Thank God for being close even when it doesn't feel like it. Prayer for His guidance to help your group even when it feels easier to walk away. Ask God to reveal anything we are believing that isn't true and replace it with what is true.

Doubting God 2 Leaving Christianity

“Lord, if it’s you,” Peter replied, “tell me to come to you on the water.” “Come,” he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, “Lord, save me!” Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. “You of little faith,” he said, “why did you doubt?”

Matthew 14:28-31

“You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.

Matthew 5:43-44

For “you were like sheep going astray,” but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

1 Peter 2:25

Next Sunday @ The Quest

It’s easy to think of doubt as a sign of weak faith. But it’s not. God isn’t afraid of our doubts, so we don’t have to be either. Join us next Sunday as we continue our series Doubting God and wrestle with the question: Why are some Christians so UN-Christlike?
